Gallery Talk: “Here and Now” - by Laura Reilly

Colorado Springs, January 23 - Artist Laura Reilly, one of the region's best-loved and highly collected artists, premieres her newest collection of original impressionist oil landscapes at a special afternoon Gallery-Talk at Hunter-Wolff Gallery.

Come and experience Laura’s energy and enthusiasm on Saturday, January 23 from 2 – 3 pm at Hunter-Wolff Gallery. Laura will unveil her newest collection and discuss the value of owning original art along with what inspires her and what it takes to be a successful artist in difficult economic times. She will also take questions from the audience. Be the first in line to feast your eyes on her breathtaking new work and enjoy a perfect antidote to a cold January afternoon.

Laura's paintings are sure to “wow” you with their dynamic brushstrokes and warm you with exquisitely rich and radiant color.

Referring to each painting in the collection from the smallest gem to the largest masterwork, Gallery owner Sharon Wolff says, “They feed the soul and flood one’s senses with sublime beauty, poetry and mystery. Laura is a master at combining these critical elements for a lifetime treasure one never tires of enjoying. She takes our shared experiences of the natural world and spins them into artistic gold— for masterpieces in paint to brighten and enliven our world!”

Laura Reilly will be available for this special Gallery-Talk presentation on Saturday, January 23 from 2 – 3 pm at Hunter-Wolff Gallery, 2510 W. Colorado Avenue, Colorado Springs in Old Colorado City. Call 719-520-9494 for details or visit www.hunterwolffgallery.com
